Report of the activity

On June 27th 2012, all the first year students of the college assembled for an orientation programme in the college auditorium. The function was presided over the Principal Capt. Dr. M.K. Ramachandran. The objective of the programme was to make the students aware of the newly introduced CBCSS system and the evaluation methods. Afterwards the students assembled in the department. They were given awareness of opportunities to be socially integrated into the culture of the college and the department by the professors of the department.
