The honourable Governor of Kerala, Sri Arif Mohammad Khan was the chief guest of the educational conference presided by Prof.H Venkateshwarlu, the honourable V.C of CUK. The honourable Governor inaugurated the exhibition held at Payaswini hall. Various educational institutions participated in the event to exhibit different activities organised by their institutions based on various topics. Each of the stalls was visited by the Governor. The activities done in our college based on Vedic Mathematics and activities of the Sanskrit department of our college in collaboration with IKS was presented in our exhibition stall. Honourable Governor appreciated our work in Vedic Mathematics On the second day of Gyanotsav 2023, there were presentations of educational institutions. This programme was inaugurated by the Minister of state for Education, Smt. Annapurna Devi Yadav. She also visited the exhibition stalls and made remarkable comments about our stall. The presentation was conducted in Sabarmati hall and Saraswati hall. Poornima Unnikrishnan, B.Sc Mathematics student of our college presented the activities of our college on the topic “Embedding India with Indian Knowledge System”. We presented the details of the 5th International Vedic Maths Conference and workshop conducted in our college and the 30 hour add on course programme. Various activities done in collaboration with IKS were also presented. The Chair and audience congratulated her and made valuable comments about her presentation. Higher education conference was held on the third day of the Gyanotsav which was inaugurated by the UGC Joint Secretary Mr. Rajesh Varma. The distribution of the certificates to the participants of the Gyanotsav 2023 was carried out by Prof. Alok Kumar Chakraval, the honourable Vice Chancellor, Guru Ghasidas Vishwavidyalaya and Mr. A Vinod, the national Joint Secretary of Vidyabhyasa Vikasa Kendra. The Gyanolsav 2023 was a remarkable and well organised summit . .
Outcome of the activity	Students learn so many things about NEP and its implementation. They presented a stall related to NEP-based programs and also got an opportunity to see stalls of other educational institutions. Really It was a remarkable Experience. They met and interacted with the Hon. Governor of Kerala and the minister of state of Education of India. It was a memorable moment for them. One of our students Poornima presented a PPT about our contributions related to NEP, It helps our students to increase their confidence to attend such programs
