- Syllabus Completion: Teachers demonstrated efficiency in completing syllabi within the given timeframe.
- Evaluation: Teachers were commended for their punctuality and fairness in conducting exams and evaluating answer sheets.

Areas for Improvement:

- ICT Usage: While many teachers use ICT tools effectively, a few do not utilize them or need improvement.
- Activity-Oriented Methods: Some teachers could enhance engagement by incorporating participatory activities and innovative methods in their teaching.

General Remarks:

- Teachers were highlighted for their motivating and approachable nature.
- Suggestions included requests for more interactive and ICT-based teaching approaches.

2. Action Taken Report

2.1 Promoting ICT Usage

- Workshops: Organized training sessions for faculty on effective use of Google Classroom, MS Teams, and presentation tools.
- Resource Allocation: Ensured availability of projectors, internet connectivity, and necessary software in classrooms.
- Support: Designated a technical team to assist teachers in creating and using digital teaching materials.

2.2 Enhancing Activity-Oriented Teaching

- Training Programs: Conducted sessions on innovative teaching methods such as case studies, group discussions, role-playing, and flipped classrooms.
- Peer Sharing: Initiated a mentorship program where teachers with expertise in activity-based learning mentor their colleagues.

2.3 Encouraging Innovation

- Recognition and Rewards: Implemented a system to recognize teachers who excel in innovative teaching.
- Resource Availability: Provided access to journals, e-books, and other teaching aids to encourage creativity.

2.4 Regular Feedback Mechanism

- Instituted quarterly feedback sessions to monitor progress and gather suggestions from students.
- Created a feedback response team to ensure that actions are taken promptly.

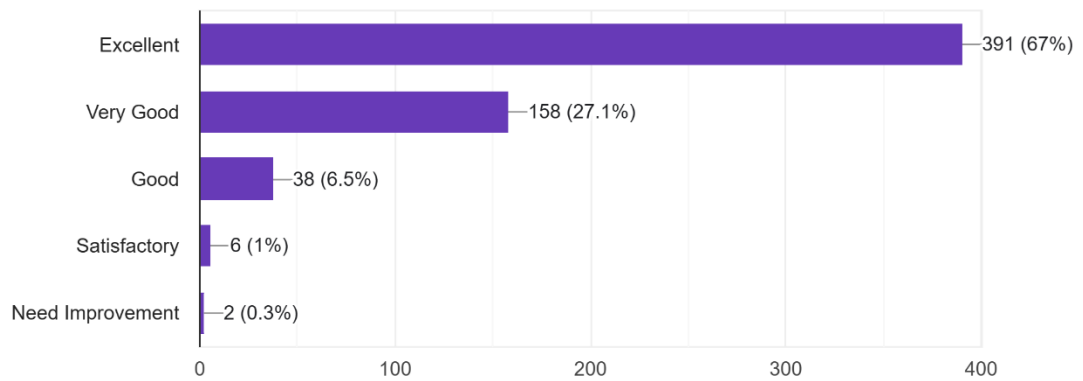

2.5 Acknowledging Excellence

- Announced appreciation for teachers with consistent "Excellent" ratings during faculty meetings and newsletters.

- Displayed a list of commendable teachers on the college notice board.
